VOLUNTEER'S REPORT: Kamren Weiler made a presentation to the volunteers on behalf of her son Asher, who suffered a cardiac event while tubing with his family on the Willamette River in August 2024. His mother, Kamren, is now fundraising for the first, in Oregon, lifesaving AED bundle for outdoor recreation spaces, to be placed near the AHS football field. Each unit costs $2500, the volunteers donated $700 to reach their goal for this first unit. She is partnering with The Aliver Foundation to facilitate the donations.
